

SWISS BRIDGE AWARD 2003

Two investigators share the SWISS BRIDGE AWARD 2003 and receive each CHF 250,000 for the following projects:

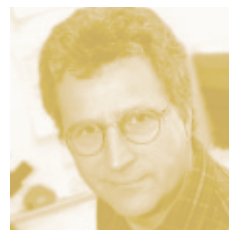

NOVEL APPROACHES TOWARDS THE THERAPY OF TUMORS WITH MICROSATELLITE INSTABILITY

MAIN INVESTIGATOR ——— Dr. Josef Jiricny, Institute of Molecular Cancer Research at the University of Zurich.

THE FUNCTIONAL ROLE OF CELL ADHESION MOLECULES DURING TUMOR PROGRESSION

MAIN INVESTIGATOR ——— Dr. Gerhard Christofori, Institute for Biochemistry and Genetics at the University of Basle. This project will be supported by the Stambach-Foundation, Basle.

Please do not hesitate to request more information on the projects supported from info@swissbridge.ch

SWISS BRIDGE AWARD CEREMONY

Prof. Dr. U. Metzger of the board of trustees (second from right) with H. Strittmatter, W. H. Spross and B. Bettoni of the INNER CIRCLE of the supporters and friends of the foundation.

The chairman of the jury, Prof. Dr. G. Mc Vie, the chairman of the foundation, Prof. Dr. G. Nosedà, the former chairman of the jury, Prof. Dr. P. Kleihues and the Managing Director of the foundation, Thomas Hoepli (left to right).

Prominent guests at the award ceremony.

A toast to the winners of the SWISS BRIDGE AWARD 2003.

16TH OCTOBER 2003